DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2,5,9,10 & 14 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Maxim (US Patent No. 5,887,437). Maxim discloses a self adhering cold pack comprising: a self adhering cold pack (10), cooling agent (24) that may consist of water or gel (see column 3), an upper and lower layer and said cold pack layers are made of flexible liquid impermeable material such as plastic (see column 2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1,3,15-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Maxim in view of Van Cleve (US Patent No. 4,676,247). Maxim discloses the claimed invention as stated above but fails to mention discrete pockets with a cooling medium and a strap for securing.

Art Unit: 3744

Van Cleve teaches a cooling wrap with pockets and a Velcro strap for securing cold wrap. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the cold pack disclosed by Maxim with individual pockets containing cooling medium with a strap for securing as taught by Van Cleve, for providing a more localized cooling of a body structure part and means of securing a cold pack with straps to allow for walking while cold pack is in contact with a body structure and providing continuous cooling.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 22-25 & 27 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Claims 4,6,19-21,28 & 29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
